

September 2025 Prayer Guide

Monday prayer points: Literature

- Praise God that the first indigenous Christian publishing house in Ethiopia has launched. Please pray for Tekalign Duguma as he leads this vital ministry.
- Pray for the release of the revised version of the Africa Bible Commentary. Langham Graduate Yacouba Sannon is the General Editor and Langham's Elizabeth Mburu is the New Testament Editor. Please pray against any delays and for a great uptake of this new resource.
- Pray for Colin Macpherson, Langham's Director for Publisher Development. Colin walks alongside indigenous publishing houses in Majority World countries, providing vital support and advice. He is the guest on our Langham Live zoom call at the end of September.
- Pray for Claire Moore, Langham's Editorial Coordinator, based at the Langham Service Centre in Carlisle. Pray for wisdom as she oversees many projects.

Tuesday prayer points: Scholars

- As a new academic year starts for many, including new Langham Scholars embarking on their PhD studies, pray they will settle well and know God's peace at this time.
- Pray for Dr Seble Daniel, a Langham Graduate who is now a faculty member at the Ethiopian Graduate School of Theology. Pray especially for her efforts to raise up leaders who will stop harmful practices in her country.
- Several Langham Graduates contributed to the renowned South Asia Bible Commentary, which was published in 2015. Please pray that this resource will continue to bless believers in that region.
- Pray for Langham Graduate Beatrice Ang, who is speaking at a forum at the Asia Theological Seminary in October, on the topic of Christian leadership. Pray that God will help her preparations.

Wednesday prayer points: Preaching

- Pray for 'A' in South Asia, who has a central role in the administration of the preaching movement in her country. Pray she will continue to feel her work is having an impact.
- Give thanks for Langham Preaching training in Carletonville, South Africa, which took place over four Saturdays in July and August, with 11 people attending. Pray for these preachers!
- Pray for a large training event taking place from 8-11 September in Medellín, Colombia. Members of Preaching Clubs from across the country are joining with alumni from the Biblical Seminary of Colombia for workshops on preaching, social media, sport and more. Please pray for the 300 people expected to attend, that the goal of exposing some of the subtle 'gods of our time' will be reached.

Thursday prayer points: International

- Keep Riad Kassis, our International Director who is based in Lebanon, in your prayers as he humbly leads Langham's worldwide ministries.
- Continue to lift to the Lord our brothers and sisters in places of war at this time. Pray for peace and for the protection and sustaining of our family.

Friday prayer points: UK and Ireland

- Praise God for Mary Evans, our guest on Langham Live last month, who will be stepping down after many years as a Langham UKI board member. Pray for God's guidance as she moves on to a new chapter in her life.
- Pray that many people will stumble upon Langham through our Langham Live podcast, which was launched recently.
- After a successful and busy summer of conferences and conventions, pray that people won't forget conversations they had and will read literature given to them. Please pray that more people will start supporting Langham as a result of Langham's stands this summer.

Saturday & Sunday prayer points

- As a new academic term begins for many, please pray for energy and enthusiasm for Langham's staff team around the world.
- The international launch of 'Understanding Mission', by Chris Wright, takes place on 8th September. Continue to pray that this resource will be used by many believers in the UK, Ireland and beyond.
